Programme Report

26th April 2023

The IQAC, Cultural department and Raman Exploratorium organized a One day National workshop Film making on 26 April 2023 in the college ICT Room. The guest speaker for the workshop was Mr. Jalaluddin Baba from Kashmir. He started with a brief discussion on the difference between movie, cinema and films and emphasized upon the practical approach to production. Further, he explained the evolution of camera and how it works to capture light around us. Students were then told about the importance of casting, directing, locations, scripting etc in the entire production activity. He also explained how editing is the key to film making and a good editor will always be a good director. He further focused on the nuances of financial aspects of film making and briefed about budgeting of films. Another topic thrown light upon was "the types of stories: character driven and plot driven." He also added his experiential learning to the workshop by enlightening students about how it is important to look for an inspiration for your film. Students were taught editing and were taken on a photo walk around the campus which helped them learn the practical aspects of camera handling. Students learned a lot about film making techniques and production activities through the workshop. It was an informative and interesting session for students. The workshop was organized by Dr. Sangita Patil (Chief, Cultural Department A, C & S College Palus) in accordance with Dr. P.M.Patil (Coordinator IQAC cell A, C & S College Palus).

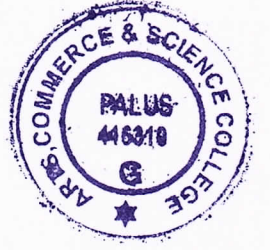

Shri, Ramchandra bhau Patil President of Palus Shikshan Prasarak Mandal Palus was the president of the programme. He expressed her views about Film Making. All members of teaching staff and students from various faculties were presented. In the end of the workshop Dr.Sangita patil expressed vote of thanks.
